LUTHERAN CONGREGATION SE- LECTS A NEW PASTOR.

Rev. H. C. Schneider, of New York City, Will Succeed Rev. Henry Lisse, Resigned—Sketch of the Pastor-Elect—Educational Classes Close Their Term with a Social. Marriage of Miss Sarah Burke and William O'Donnell—Installation of Officers.

The members of the congregation of the Christ Lutheran church, of Cedar avenue, met in special session last night in the auditorium of the church to call a successor to Rev. Henry Lisse, whose resignation as pastor of that flourishing flock was announced exclusively in The Tribune recently.

The candidates for the honor were Rev. A. H. Forth, who came to this city directly, three months after his ordination at his native home in Crisschona, Switzerland, and Rev. H. C. Schneider, of New York.

The latter was selected on the fifth ballot taken, and by motion was chosen unanimously. The rules of the church require a two-thirds vote for the selection of a pastor, and each candidate having warm admirers in the congregation, the balloting excited no little interest. Rev. Mr. Lisse, the retiring pastor, presided at the meeting. Rev. H. C. Schneider, the pastor-elect, was ordained to the ministry eleven years ago. For eight years he labored as a missionary in Canada, and had a charge at Manitowish. From there he came to San Francisco, and a year ago he came to New York city. He preached last Sunday at the morning service at the Christ Lutheran church, and is an able and brilliant pulpit orator. He is thirty-six years of age, and married. It is expected that he will arrive in the city Tuesday next, and will preach his first sermon the following Sunday at the present time.

It is a singular fact that the Rev. Mr. Schneider, the Rev. Mr. Lisse and the Rev. Mr. Von Busse, whom Mr. Lisse will succeed as pastor of the Zion Lutheran church at Harrisburg, were all educated and ordained at the theological seminary at Halle, Germany, yet none of them were classmates.

Rev. Mr. Lisse will preach his farewell sermon a week from Sunday next, and will leave the following day for Harrisburg, to be present at a reception to mark his coming, and the leaving of his predecessor, Rev. Von Busse, Friday night, April 21, a farewell service will be held at the Christ church.

Baby Talk for Baby's Mother...

A mother's personality is repeated in her baby. She may dress, talk or act as she pleases, but the baby tells the story of her innermost self as truly and surely as though it had been revealed through an all-seeing eye.

We Care for the Baby's Needs

And cater for their every want as far as clothing goes, and do it with a thoroughness that shows our interest in the work. Nowhere else in town does the Baby's Dress get so much attention as here, and mothers generally are beginning to realize that the task of providing for baby's complete outfit is better cared for by us than they could have done it personally, and then there's the question of saving. Outfits cost less money here than any mother could make them for, and they're always right. Never disappointing, for every little garment and fixing is as prettily, daintily and conscientiously made as good materials, good workmanship and specially trained skill can make them.

Baby's Long or Short Dresses

Are receiving special attention this week in one of our large show windows. Look at them critically. Note the fineness of the material, the perfect matching of the edgings, inserting, laces, the beauty of the workmanship, and the exquisite taste displayed in the styles. Then ask about prices, which are far lower than you'd think. To look at them.

Baby's Coats, Baby's Skirts

Baby's Slips, Bands, Socks, Vests, Stockings, Booties, Caps, Hoody, Veils, Mittens, Carriage Robes—everything in fact that a baby can wear or ought to wear at every season and under all conditions, is here, and here you get it at its best, no matter how your taste or ability to spend may lead you, for the mother of limited means is our first thought and chief care in this department, although there is practically no limit if you can afford it and you wish your darling's raiment to be extravagantly fine and needlessly extravagant.

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

INTERESTING LECTURE OF THE REV. JAMES HUGHES.

Miss Bridget Hannon, of Leggett's street, Taken to the Lackawanna Hospital, Where She Will Be Operated Upon—Debate Conducted by the Crystal Literary and Dramatic Club—Entertainment of Eastern Star Commandery, Knights of Malta—Rev. E. T. Jones Coming.

The Rev. James Hughes delivered a lecture last night in the Congregational church on "The Country of the Future." Among other things he said that South and Central Africa would be the scene of great contention among the various nations of the earth. The country is immensely rich in minerals and precious stones and in its agricultural resources.

Many of the nations are actuated by a spirit of abnormal land grabbing, and the enormous wealth of that country, and the value in character and history of the native races, will be sure to excite the avarice and jealousy of the nations. Indeed, this sort of thing has commenced and the map of the country is undergoing constant change. There will be much fighting over the big plains to be found in South Africa. The total output of gold in the whole world during the last year amounted to $311,000,000; of this amount South Africa supplied $18,000,000.

There is now every prospect of a railway extending from Cape Town right to Cairo in Egypt within a few years' time. For the purpose of carrying out this great scheme which originated in the prolific brain of the Hon. J. Cecil Rhodes, the British and German governments are likely to render very liberal assistance. Such a railway will result in a marvellously rapid and extensive development of that vast continent. There will be room there and profitable work for millions of people in the near future.

The greatest personality in South Africa today is the Hon. Cecil Rhodes. He is the greatest factor in the development of the country, the largest employer of labor, and by far the most generous man in the land. He is the son of a clergyman. He had six brothers; one of them was killed while electing a railway in South Africa, and nearly all the others belong to the British army. Mr. Rhodes first went to South Africa for the benefit of his health. He soon became healthy and strong, and today he is one of the finest men in the country. He is both an able and an enterprising man, full of health. He is a hard working man, full of resource. He is very rich and as generous as he is rich. He made his money in that country and he lives there and uses his wealth most liberally among the people where he made it.

He is a student of the future, but when he speaks he has some things to say and his speeches are epoch-making efforts. He is truly a great man and marvellously successful in nearly all his enterprises.

I have the highest opinion of the future of both South and Central Africa. There are, there, some very grand openings for a profitable investment of capital, and the prospects for the working classes will become brighter and brighter as time rolls on.

The lecture was well received and greatly appreciated for it was full of useful information and romantic experiences of the lecturer's life during his ten years' residence in that distant land.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.
The following officers of the Father White youth society were installed last evening: President, Richard Maloney; vice president, John Murtaugh; recording secretary, Thomas Homer; financial secretary, W. A. Lynott; treasurer, Edward George; sergeant-at-arms, Patrick Foley; captain, William May; second lieutenant, John E. Moran; second lieutenant, Patrick Cannon. Charles H. A. O'Boyle and Edward George received their credentials to the Diocesan convention to be held in Hardsell next month.

After the installation speeches were made by the newly elected members. After the meeting a social session was held and a number of talented people participated. Cheers were passed around by the officers and a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, Safe but Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied some times with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the lungs and heart, and difficult breathing; headache, fickle appetite, nervousness, and a general played out and languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate disease is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily and thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach.

To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one thing necessary to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids.

These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and, not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom, passing back into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I can not find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound sleep from their use. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals."

Send for book mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.
